

CARR - 405

LOG HOUSE

Fenby Farm Road
Westminster vicinity

private

This is an unusual log house because of the lack of historical documentation about the structure. The house is built in the tradition of a mid-nineteenth century log farmhouse, especially with its siting along a bank with a full-story stone foundation on the main facade. However, the property is not shown on either of the mid-19th century maps of Carroll County. The house has recently been rehabilitated with exposed logs, an asphalt shingle roof, and a modern one-story rear addition.
